Chapter 1 by Jackson Xiong

Once upon a time there was a red horse. The red horse was the odd one out of the group. That red horse's name is Brock. Brock hated them. Brock also loved them. He wished he wasn't red anymore. So that night Brock wished upon a shooting star. He wished he was normal like the other horses. The next night Brock did his normal routine and all the horses stared at him like he was crazy. Then Brock realized that everyone was staring at him. Brock went to find a mirror. Brock was the most beautiful none horse he ever saw. Brock did like what he looked like so he ran back to the barn and tried to change back, but he couldn't! Brock was crying all over the ground and the ground turned into mud. Brock ran into town. Brock search all over up and down, side to side, but still nothing. Then a little girl came to Brock and asked, "Have I seen you around here before?"
